

Who We Are I Have a Dream An inquiry into the nature of the self; beliefs and values; personal, physical, mental, social and spiritual health; human relationships including families, friends, communities, and cultures; rights and responsibilities; what it means to be human.	Where we are in place and Time Back To The Future An inquiry into orientation in place and time; personal histories; homes and journeys; the discoveries; explorations and migrations of humankind; the relationships between and the interconnectedness of individuals and civilizations; from local and global perspectives.	How we Express Ourselves Eye Heart Nature An inquiry into the ways in which we discover and express ideas, feelings, nature, culture, beliefs and values; the ways in which we reflect on, extend and enjoy our creativity; our appreciation of the aesthetic.	How the World Works Welcome to the Neighborhood An inquiry into the natural world and its laws; the interaction between the natural world (physical and biological) and human societies; how humans use their understanding of scientific principles; the impact of scientific and technological advances on society and on the environment.	How we Organize Ourselves Money Cents An inquiry into the interconnectedness of human-made systems and communities; the structure and function of organizations; societal decision-making; economic activities and their impact on humankind and the environment.	How We Share the Planet The Circle of Life An inquiry into rights and responsibilities in the struggle to share finite resources with other people and with other living things; communities and the relationships within and between them; access to equal opportunities; peace and conflict resolution.
Central Idea: Citizens have rights and responsibilities associated with living in a society.	Central Idea: The contributions of individuals and groups help shape history.	Central idea: The creation and study of nature’s images gives us a deeper appreciation for its wonders.	Central Idea: Physical geography plays an important role in community development.	Central Idea: Successful businesses are determined by the ability to match community needs with goods and services provided.	Central idea: Plants and animals adapt and interact within environments.
Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rights and responsibilities of citizens • How citizens can participate in civic responsibilities. • Roles and responsibilities of organizations toward their members. • How different societies vary in their approaches to citizens rights and 	Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How historical figures and sites affect past and present • Contributions of diverse groups and individuals • Ways to demonstrate respect for cultural differences 	Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How studying nature’s images increase our understanding of nature • How creating nature’s images of nature increases our understanding and appreciation of nature • How nature’s images are created affect how we 	Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Major physical geographic and geologic attributes of Utah • How physical geography and geology affect human life • How human actions modify the physical environment. 	Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How businesses develop • The relationship between supply and demand • How economic development affects communities, and how communities affect economic development 	Lines of Inquiry: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How plants and animals adapt within biomes • How plants and animals interact within biomes • Our responsibilities toward the changing environment

responsibilities.		interpret them
-------------------	--	----------------	--	--	--